ENTERTAINING INTRODUCTION TO GOLF ORGANISED BY MCLEOD COUNTRY GOLF CLUB

Aspiring golfers do not have to be the next Greg Norman to come home with a pocket-full of winnings at the upcoming shoot-out challenge at McLeod Country Golf Club.

According to Club Manager, Michael Richards, many local residents are interested in golf and keen to give it a go, but are slightly intimidated by the commitment of structured golfing clinics.

“We think it’s important that everyone can enjoy golf on our beautiful course, and have fun at the same time, so we have organised a number of mini competitions and activities to allow everyone to get involved, regardless of age and ability,” he said.

The club is hosting a wine-tasting and shoot-out event on Friday 22 May, to allow local residents a taste of competition golf, but on a smaller and far more entertaining level.

“The challenge starts next to the 18th ladies tee. Participants contribute $1 per shot, and the player with the nearest ball to the pin collects all the winnings each hole,” Mr Richards explained.

Starting at 4pm, both members and visitors, men and women, can register and players can take as many shots as they like, with each costing $1.

Mr Richards said that the shoot-out concludes with wine-tasting and entertainment on the balcony, where challengers could discuss their game, share some golfing tips and socialise.

McLeod Country Golf Club has recently celebrated its 40th anniversary, and remains the first and only golf club fully administered by women in Australia for the enjoyment of all its players.

Today women, men and children make up the 1000-plus membership, enjoying the strong camaraderie and fellowship as well as a challenging game of golf on the 18-hole course.

Membership is open year round and the nomination fee for April/May has been dropped from $660 to only $100.

Ends.
